GBUS 8894 SPECIAL TOPICS SEMINAR
(1.5 credit hours)

Each seminar is a course of study for students with special interests in business administration topics not currently included in the normal course offerings of the MBA Program. The seminar topics should be consistent with the objectives of the Second Year Program. Each 1.5 credit hour course should represent approximately 60 hours of work, and a maximum of 3.0 credit hours of Special Topics Seminar elective courses may be taken for credit toward graduation. Students must obtain written consent from the instructor in order to participate in a Special Topics Seminar.

Academic objectives of the course will include one or more of the following:

- Explore topics of mutual interest in a regularly scheduled class format
- Expose students to emerging and current issues
- Extend students’ studies beyond the MBA courses offered in a field of study

Elements of the course grade:

Other (as specified by a faculty member) 100%
